The Magellan is going up, and the Cosmos is also reported to go, but in both cases there seems to be some doubt. Correspondence at least will be sent, if the steamer leaves.

News by Magellan up to 10th London, 14th Lisbon.

England insists on obliging Turkey to fulfil Treaty of Berlin, and will take measures conjointly or otherwise to oblige that power to carry out her solemn promises, not only with regard to Roumelia, but also with regard to the Turks themselves.

The French Chambers were busy with the Bill on the Liberty of the Press.

In Switzerland it was reported that 6000 metres of the St. Gothard tunnel had fallen, killing and wounding several persons; some others of the cantons had re-established the law on execution for homicide and incendiarism.

The Belgian Chambers were discussing the law about foreigners, brought on by inroad of the Jesuit emigrants from France.

The Spanish court and political circles of Spain were busy with the extension of powers required by the Governor of Cuba, to punish the rebels of Mayari.

It was reported that a fresh emission of Consolidated Funds would be issued to balance the budget of Spain.

With regard to Brazil, we have news of the hot discussions in the Chambers on the convenience of reinforcing the navy, in case of any disturbances in the Plate, as also in case of a war between the Argentines and the Chilians, in which case Brazil would have to assume a decided political course. Martin Garcia and its fortifications were also brought out as a reason to provide Brazil with a strong navy.

Here we have news about a proclamation issued by Colonel Latorre, in the sense of raising the country in arms against this Government. I have not seen it, and cannot vouch for its veracity. It is also reported Colonel Paleano, Chief of Minas, was up in arms.

Many people arriving from your city.

There are doubts as to whether the Argentine Consul will allow any communication with your port for a day or two.

Dr. Vasquez Sagastume, the Uruguayan Minister in Brazil, is here, and reports are going round that the Legation will be suppressed.

The Cosmos leaves for your port, despatched for Belgrano by the Argentine Consul, and the Magellan is waiting for instructions.

NEUTRAL RIGHTS.

The closing of the port, even under the modified terms arranged by the National Government with the Foreign Ministers, is a subject that involves very severe questions of International Law. First, because the Port of Buenos Ayres is an integral part of the Argentine Republic, and cannot, under any point of view, be regarded by neutral nations as the port of a belligerent. Even should hostilities break out between the Government of B. Ayres and the National Government, foreign nations will not, at the outset, recognise Buenos Ayres as a belligerent, and the same difficulties will then arise as in the war of the United States between the South and North.

If Buenos Ayres is not a belligerent, then it is clear the Argentine Government cannot blockade its own port, and the present closing of the port cannot be interpreted as a blockade. What then is it? The difficulty of defining such a state of things forces us all to talk of the blockade of the port, when really there is not, and cannot be a blockade at all. As to the right of the Argentine Government to arbitrarily close the port, for the purpose of suffocating rebellion, there of course can be no question, since every state is entitled to its own jurisdiction within that state; but foreign commerce must have certain rights; and if in the case of a formal blockade International Law lays down the rule that due notice must be given to neutrals, clearly in the more informal procedure of closing a port notice must also be given. There are ships on the sea from all the great maritime ports of Europe and America, bound with valuable cargoes for this port. In the case of blockade these vessels, if not carrying contraband of war, and at the time of their leaving their port of departure nothing was known of any prohibition, would be entitled to enter; clear it is, therefore, that under the present state of things they must be entitled to the same privilege.

In looking through the authorities on this important subject we find nothing referring to the simple closure of the port: All the decisions bearing upon the question of blockade. Sir W. Scott, who is a very high authority, says that to constitute a violation of blockade three things must be proved—

1st. The existence of an actual blockade.

2nd. The knowledge of the party supposed to have offended.

3rd. Some act of violation, either by going in or coming out with a cargo laden after the commencement of blockade.

In the present case, we have what does not often occur, a blockade made effectivs before it is declared; as usually nations declare blockade before it is effective. But in this, as in many other things, we differ from Europe, and we have a line of battle ships completely hemming in our port, before the slightest notification is given to neutral powers, or even an attempt made to declare the port blockaded. Sir W. Scott, in defining the violation of a blockade, is careful to speak only of cargoes laden after the commencement of blockade, and we are equally careful to remind the National Government that the vessels bound to the Plate had all their cargoes laden before even the National Government itself had the slightest notion of blockading; and, as the law is so explicit on this subject, we feel satisfied that the National Government will not prohibit these vessels from entering, unless the cargoes can be characterized as contraband of war. Wheaton, in his renowned Treatise on International Law, in speaking of the required knowledge of neutral captains of a blockade, says—

"As a proclamation, or general public notification, is not of itself sufficient to constitute a legal blockade, so neither can a knowledge of the existence of such a blockade be imputed to a party, merely in consequence of such a proclamation or notification. Not only must an actual blockade exist, but a knowledge of it must be brought home to the party, in order to show that it has been violated. As on the one hand, a declaration of blockade which is not supported by the fact cannot be deemed legally to exist, so, on the other hand, the fact duly notified to the party on the spot, is of itself sufficient to affect him with a knowledge of it; for the public notifications between Governments can be meant only for the information of individuals; but if the individual is personally informed, that purpose is still better obtained than by a public declaration. Where the vessel sails from a country lying sufficiently near to the blockaded port to have constant information of the state of the blockade, whether it is continued or is relaxed, no special notice is necessary: for the public declaration in this case implies notice to the party, after sufficient time has elapsed to receive the declaration at the port whence the vessel sails. But where the country lies at such a distance that the inhabitants cannot have this constant information, they may lawfully send their vessels conjecturally, upon the expectation of finding the blockade broken up, after it has existed for a considerable time. In this case, the party has a right to make a fair enquiry whether the blockade be determined or not, and consequently cannot be involved in the penalties affixed to a violation of it, unless, upon such inquiry, he receives notice of the existence of the blockade."

The point we raise for the consideration of the National Government is, that whilst the closing of the port against vessels and steamers coming from Montevideo may be considered legal, the prohibition is unjust, ungenerous, and arbitrary against vessels coming from Europe or the States; and as the losses upon all such cargoes, if prohibited entry, will be gigantic, it is unfair towards neutrals to cause such losses which, by due notification to the Argentine Consuls abroad, might to a certain extent be avoided. The closing of the Port of Buenos Ayres is 'de facto' a blockade: and, as due notice must be given of a blockade, we apprehend that equal notice should be given of the closure of the port.

THE ÆNEID.

The Flores Road is now the battle field of the country. Yesterday morning at daybreak a column of well mounted and officered policemen advanced along the road and took up a position in front of Ledesma's quinta. The picquet of National troops, seeing the Provincial troops coming on, fell back on Flores, and the townsmen took possession of Caballito, say 50 strong. Soon, however, the National troops again made their appearance, and the town troops fell back, the order evidently being not to compromise affairs by firing a shot. A division of infantry from the city, say 100 men, marched down the road as far as the toll-house, but, as they were not required, they also fell back on the Plaza Once. People who want to have an idea of what is going on should run out to Flores in the tram, which still runs. Nearly all the foreigners resident in Flores prefer to remain out there to moving to town. The supply of beef and vegetables at Flores was never better, and meat is selling at the same price it was a month ago. The only scarce article in the Village of the Plain is butter; but people who keep their own cow make their own butter.

The Provincial troops are splendidly mounted, and some of the Krupp guns are already in position at the Plaza Once de Setiembre, where a division of say 1000 men is quartered in the different barracas.

The exact strength of the National troops at the Chacarita is not known, but it is generally supposed that within the last few days they have been reinforced. One of the papers publishes the following list of regiments, with their strength, known to be out there:—

	Men.
1st Batt. of Infantry	210
8th " "	240
9th " "	180
10th " "	230
11th " "	240
1st Regt of Cavalry	300
9th " "	136
Artillery	410
Batallon Avellaneda	93
	2044

The French packet cleared yesterday without any difficulty, and the Postmaster despatched the mails the same as usual.

The Telegrafo Maritimo received yesterday morning gives the most astonishing list of passengers arriving there from Buenos Ayres. To judge by the lists, the Cosmos and other steamers must be doing a roaring business.

Yesterday morning it was announced that the Campana Railway is stopped and the coal out there, belonging to Messrs J. P. Boyd and Co., has been taken. Quilmes people put in no appearance yesterday morning, and it is generally said that the trains on that line are also stopped. People living at the Lomas de Zamora come and go on horseback.

National Guards

"The province in which you were born, the cradle of Argentine liberties, since the revolution of May, has also ever been the indissoluble bond of our nationality, holding high its flag in the most trying moments, presiding over the reorganization of the country, after lengthened strife, and being the strongest pillar of the nation at home and abroad.

"But this decided patriotism for noble ends can not be expected when the object in view is to raze the edifice which cost us such sacrifices and was bequeathed to us by our fathers, and which we have so often defended on the field of battle.

"The day on which the first signal for the dissolution of the Republic is given, by dissolving Congress; the day on which the Constitution is trampled under foot, and the most sacred rights ignored; when an army sits down before Buenos Ayres turning, arms against its authorities, we cannot become accomplices in such an iniquitous attempt, but should resist in every way.

"My sword as a soldier, my blood as a citizen, my influence as your leader and friend, I cannot, unless as a criminal, place at the service of those who, sheltered under the name of the nation, use it against the liberties of that nation and of the province of Buenos Ayres.

"The swords of your leaders, like your blood, can only be placed at the service of the Argentine country and those authorities which, like the Government of this province, uphold its honour and its sacred rights under that flag of Liberty round which we have shared the dangers and fatigues of the rudest campaigns.

"National Guards of the South

"Thirty years ago your name figured in the most brilliant pages of our struggles, immortalized by sacrifices, crowned with triumph, dignified by calmness in the fight.

"Fellow soldiers,

"The Government of the Province again calls on you, trusting in your antecedents and tried patriotism, in the name of the honour and liberties of Buenos Ayres.

"We attack no one: we rebel against no authority; but, threatened with armed aggression, slavery, and dishonour, we close up our ranks to defend our native province. To touch it, I swear it by my honour and in your name, they must pass over your bodies, which knowing as I do your patriotism and valour, is equivalent to swearing that they will perish in the attempt.

"Sons of the South, my companions in liberty and danger among whom neither a coward nor a traitor has ever been found, I summon you to the fight, certain that our burning patriotism will find us all united in the hour of trial.

"Comrades of the Frontier and the Desert, neither you nor I wish for civil war. Our arms are open to receive those who come in the name of concord, but our swords are drawn and our lances in rest to make those who try to stain the sacred soil of Buenos Ayres with blood bite the dust.

It was estimated that nearly 4,000 women were present. The principal speakers were the chairwoman, Miss Helen Taylor, Miss Becker, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. A. Arnold and Miss Rhoda Garrett.

MONTEVIDEO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

8th June, 1880.

We are in great trouble with regard to the communications with your port, and I now hear the Cosmos leaves, but will be despatched to Belgrano only. May God preserve you from a civil war! We know to our cost here in this country the dire consequences of such a calamity.

It has been reported here for some days past, and every day repeated, that Colonel Latorre will invade with forces from Brazil; and now it is said that there are proclamations signed by him in circulation about town. The Chief of Minas, who was only on Saturday dismissed from his post, is reported to be up in arms with 400 men in the highlands of Minas.

Everything looks warlike in all directions to-day. The River Plate seems to be a hotbed of revolt and patriotism.

We had a perfectly satisfactory downpour of rain yesterday, and everything looks fresh, especially with a fine pampero we have now got, coming from your side, and which does not look so desperately bad as your warlike movements.

As for general news, we have little worth mentioning. Mr. Tuson is going on in apple-pie order with regard to his port scheme. He has been despatched favorably by the Committee of the Senate, and it is very probable that the bill will pass authorising the building of his fine port improvements on the south side of the city. Our very valuable and esteemed friend Chevalier Oldham, manager of the River Plate Telegraph Company, is bound home for a short trip, in the Maskelyne, and he carries with him the good-will of everybody in this country, both foreign and native. The Ferro-Carril has a very interesting leader on the subject, and shows the good-will which he enjoys in this country. There is no mistake about the man; he is the right person in the right place—just like Englishmen know how to do it.

I shall write more frequently.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The papers by the Pacific Company's fine steamer Magellan are to 10th from London and 14th from Lisbon. We give the news in another column. Trouble for Turkey is brewing, and the new British Cabinet evidently means to make the Sick Man adhere to his promises of reform. It is said that Count Nesselrode will replace Gortschakoff as Russian Chancellor. The only member of the new British Cabinet who was defeated on seeking re-election after taking office was Sir William Harcourt, the Home Secretary, who was turned out of Oxford by Mr Hall, the great Conservative brewer, who obtained 2,735 votes against 2,681 for Sir William. From the rest of Europe there is nothing very particular. We read in the Gazette, that Captain Loftus F. Jones has been appointed Commander of Her M.S. Garnet, now in this port, vice Captain Erskine.

Until the great peace telegram from Rosario came yesterday afternoon, there was, to outward appearances, no change in the situation, and the warlike preparations went on at a truly tremendous rate. The first line of fortifications was completed before night. Independent of the Rosario news, a select few have not yet lost all hopes of peace. The Vice-President of the Republic, Sr. Acosta, has now come to the front as a peace-maker, and is making superhuman efforts to drag his country back from the abyss on the edge of which it is tottering. The Supreme Federal Court is with him, and even at this, the last moment, there may be a hope. The news from Mr. Unzue at Rosario also points to peace. On Tuesday night a conference of notables sat for many hours at Dr. Gorostiaga's house, and they broke up very late with a conviction that all is not yet lost. If a fight come, the Flores Road will be the battle-field. On Tuesday the Rifleros bravely marched out to the 'bañado,' near 'The Village,' to escort in a drove of cattle, but the National troops had captured the precious animals. On the same day Colonel Maldonado, who now commands the National troops in Flores, had a telegraphic conversation with Colonel Arias at Mercedes, the latter officer being under the impression that he was talking to the Government in Buenos Ayres, but he soon found out his mistake, and Colonel Maldonado gained nothing by his 'ruse de guerre.'

Stand-by O'Gorman sent us stunning news from Montevideo yesterday, which will be found in another column. Ex-President Latorre has changed his mind as to Orientals being ungovernable, has thrown up the poncho, and is marching on the the capital with an 'army of salvation.' It is a pity this port is closed, as President Vidal will clearly require change of air before long, and Dictator Latorre will resume his sway. The River Plate is a decidedly lively place just now.

The Patria Argentina makes an excellent suggestion which we trust the authorities will at once adopt. Our colleague says, with much reason, that the expense of taking out 'protection papers' weighs very heavily on the humbler class of foreigners, and that a birth certificate, or any other document, or the testimony of neighbours, or other genuine evidence of their being foreigners, ought to be accepted, thus saving an expense which the great majority of foreign residents can very badly afford. We trust Governor Tejedor will lend a favourable ear to the Patria's proposal.

The 'confiteros' have been the first to take advantage of the situation by raising the price of their miserable little cakes 100 per cent. The best way to punish these gentlemen is to abstain from cakes till the siege is over; but it will be hard to persuade children of either large or small growth to do this.

There are no telegrams from Chile about the war, but some private despatches state that our Transandine neighbours are greatly pleased at the turn affairs are taking in the Argentine Republic.

The steamer Magellan brings over a million kilogrammes of French wheat, a most useful consignment just at present, but we hear she is not allowed to land it.

The Montevideans have now got hold of the Gem Puzzle, and their time is divided between attention to it and apprehension as to when they may expect Hannibal (Latorre) at their gates. The row here also comes in for its share of notice, but down there they take revolutions and ructions much more coolly than we do here, perhaps because they are more accustomed to them.

The Rosario telegraph line being cut, people who want to send messages in that direction can do so via Montevideo, and to Salto, Concordia etc. by the Platino Brazilheiro line and cable. This is a wrinkle worth knowing.

All the theatre managers have announced that one week more of the present state of things will floor the whole ot them and force them to withdraw their companies from the boards. Sorry to hear it.

At the recent elections in England it was estimated that in the City of London it would cost the candidates in the aggregate some £18,000 to placard the boardings and the reserved places; and, like sensible men, the agents of both parties agreed to fight without the flaming posters, and save the money. Our public men ought to take a lesson from the London Parliamentary agents and calculate what the cost of the civil war they are bringing on the country will be. Common sense and common humanity would suggest the wisdom of saving such useless expense.

A North American colleague takes the following affecting glance at its subscription list:—"Looking over an old ledger, we see a long array of names of former subscribers who are indebted to us. Some of them have moved away, and are lost to sight, although to memory dear. Others are carrying the contribution boxes in our most respectable churches, and others again have died, and are now angels in heaven, but they owe us just the same."

The following are the rates now current for telegraph messages per word in Europe:—Austria, 4½d; Belgium, 2d; Denmark, 4d; France, 2½d; Germany, 4d; Greece, 7½d; Holland, 3d; Hungary, 5d; Italy, 5d; Norway, 4d; Portugal, 6½d; Russia in Europe, 9d; Spain, 6d; Sweden, 5½d; Switzerland, 4d; Turkey in Europe, 8d. The Argentine Republic beats enfeebled Europe in the cheap telegram line, as we only pay a paper dollar or 1½d per word in this fine country.

We regret to hear that Dr. Acuña, Deputy to Congress for Catamarca, has been attacked by small-pox.

The handsomest uniform about town is that of the Italian Foreign Legion—the Bersaglieri. They wear the broad-leafed hat with large black plume, the same as the original corps in their own army, which so distinguished itself in the Crimean War.

A poor little boy eight years old, named Pedro Rios, was brutally murdered at Tala last week, for a 20 dollars note which his mother sent him to change. The miscreant assassin stabbed the child five times and then cut his poor little throat. The police have captured the monster.

The Exhibition works in the Plaza have been stopped for the last few days, but if the glorious news from Rosario prove true, they, and everything else, will be in full fling again next week.

The well known Wizard Jam, accompanied by a fellow-artist who was in this city some time ago—Professor O'Brien from Clare—are now performing to crowded houses at Las Piedras, B.O.

The only bit of good news in the papers is in the Revista Medica, to the effect that, in spite of all the turmoil going on, the public health is tolerably good, although small-pox is dangerously prevalent.

The latest novelty in the Fashions line from head-quarters, Paris, is no pockets in the dress, and a nice little basket, like an applewoman's, but of course smaller, is carried on the arm, with the purse, handkerchief, smelling-salts &c. inside it.

Over 22,000 immigrants entered Brazil last year, 9600 of them being Italians, and other nationalities in lesser numbers: only 51 of them were English.

THE IRISH RELIEF

The following letters have been received by Father Leahy, in acknowledgment of the money collected for the Irish Relief, and sent by him to three of the Irish Bishops. The Bishop of Kerry has not written as yet, but in a few days his letter too may be expected, as also another from his Grace of Tuam in acknowledgment of a second remittance. The Bishops have received large sums from their Catholic fellow countrymen scattered through America and Australia:

St. Jarlath's, Tuam, April 24.

Reverend dear Sir,—Accept my warmest acknowledgment for the generous contribution of one hundred and thirty two pounds and ten shillings (£132. 10.0) towards the Relief of our poor people. Assuring you and our generous benefactors of Buenos Ayres of our deep gratitude and frequent prayers.

I remain, Rev. Dear Sir, faithfully yours,

John McHale

Rev. J. B. Leahy, St. Brendan's College, Carmen de Areco.

Letterkenny, April 29.

Rev. Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge, with most heartfelt gratitude, your munificent contribution of £66 5s. It could not have come at a more opportune time; for while distress is spreading and becoming more intense among our poor people, the means of meeting it are becoming daily less.

I fear the charity of the public, great as it has hitherto been, will become completely exhausted long before the wants of the poor people are at an end; and how starvation shall then be averted God only knows. We have, therefore, the greater reason for gratitude towards you and your generous friends for coming so liberally to our aid at this distressing crisis. May God bountifully reward you and them for your great charity. I shall take care to acknowledge your generous remittance in the Nation of the next week. I intended to do so in the Nation of this week, but yesterday I was kept engaged at the Relief Committee till it was too late for post, and, as the Nation is printed on Thursday night, it would be useless to forward an acknowledgment to it to-day.

Please to convey my most sincere thanks to the generous friends who have joined you in this good work.

Praying that God may grant you and them every blessing spiritual and temporal in reward of your great charity, I am, Rev. Dear Sir, your faithful servant.

Michael Logue,
Bishop of Raphoe.

The Bolsa ruled quiet enough up to closing ring hour half past 1 o'clock; the gold market opened weak and closed at 31.45, but a sale was made cash at 31.50, and not marked. It was evident that up to that hour there was not the least reaction in the market and prices rising.

But at 2 o'clock Unzue's telegram fell like a bomb-shell in the hall and split the brokers into parties to discuss the tremendous news. The news ran that Don S Unzue had telegraphed from Rosario stating 'That he believed Peace is made,' and later on they said that the basis of the arrangement is

Gen. Mitre, President.
David Roach, Vice-President.

When this news was first announced on 'Change the excitement was so great that it baffles all description; subsequently, however, when people grew cooler, doubts were expressed that Mr Unzue could make any arrangement that would bind the Government of Buenos Aires; however, we give the news as it came.

Gold opened nominally at 31.45, but at once dropped to 31.40, at which rate 107,724 sold, price then rose to 31.45, and 10,000 sold and at ½ to 2 a sale made at 31.50 cash. For the end of the month 6,000 at 31.45, and then 155,000 at 31.40, and finally 60,000 at 31.45. For July 31st 25,000 at 31.35. Sales of the day 363,724.

There was great talk on 'Change about the Magellan and Ad. Cordero refusing to allow her to land anything but mails and passengers; she has on board a splendid wheat consignment.

The Marseilles steamer Savoie entered Montevideo to-day. It is supposed now that peace is the same as made that she will enter to-morrow.

The gold sales were:—

For cash 117,724 31.40-45
For June 30th 221,000 31.45 40-45
For July 31st 25,000 31.35

The British brig Cricceth Castle spoke April 22nd, 1880, the barque Helen Marion of St. Johns, New Brunswick, in Lat. 8·42 South, Long. 28·51 West, from Bangon bound to Hongkong.

At 4 o'clock the telegraph board was covered with boletines, and the excitement in the liquidation room was tremendous, gold fell to 30.90 and one party sold alone 200,000, and others also sold heavily, prices then jumped back to 31,20, then down again to 31, then back to 31.10, and finally hung at about 31.05. When merchants discussed the news they said that Mr Unzue's telegram was not half as pacific as Mr Sassenberg's, and yet it amounted to nothing. The anxiety for peace is so great that we all wish to believe it, and therefore believe it. As for business, there was really nothing even talked of save this all absorbing news, and the Bolsa broke up with the hope that to-morrow things will be more definite.

As for the telegraph lines, we may state that they are working well. The Camara Syndical received a message from Jujuy, and a leading German house received one from Cordova.

The Bank discounted to-day 3 millions currency; the new Directors did not as yet take their seats.

Mr W Perkins and Mr B Bohse have been admitted as new Bolsa brokers.

There was more excitement in the market to-day, caused by the fresh turn of events which may be summarized as follows—

Provincial Chambers suspend Judicial Proceedings
Rumoured Revolution in Cordova
Do Banda Oriental
Organization of Italian Legions for Prov. Government
Mounting of Krupp guns at Plaza Once.
Argentine Consul in Montevideo only clears for Belgrano
Great Fall in Argentine Stocks in London
Reduction of Education Tax to 10 o/o
Legacy Tax Abolished
Mr P Huergo Custom House Collector
Machado's stirring Proclamation to Camp Nat. Guards
Meeting Pagare Commission last night
Mr M Forrester named to represent American and Mr Cavalle Italian Trade
Mr Forrester's interview with General Osborne, who states that 10 days allowed for all port operations.
Stoppage Campana Railway
Do Ensenada do
Departure of Comestibles to Camp prohibited.

Bulletins with all the above and many other items constantly issued, and in fact there was far more doing on the Bolsa in the way of reading bulletins and discussing the gravity of the situation than anything else.

The Bank Board meet to-day as usual. The Bank acts with the greatest caution in the way of discounts, but continues drawing exchange at 40d.

The Magellan's mails were delivered to-day and are important; we extract the following from the London papers—

"A large amount of gold was received at the Bank of England to-day from abroad, namely, £150,000 in sovereigns from Alexandria, via Paris, and £80,000 from Australia and the East. In the absence of any inquiry for Spain, this total seems likely to be retained here, and as the arrival from Egypt is, in all probability, only the beginning of the usual reflux which has been expected for some time, the Bank store of gold may be further replenished soon. These receipts may have some influence on the value of money, but so far the rates are still maintained on quite yesterday's level, the joint-stock banks having apparently agreed, without any formal combination, to uphold existing quotations, namely, 2½ per cent for the best 3 months' paper. Short loans were in better request to-day at 2½, ¾ per cent, as an instalment was payable on the Metropolitan Board of Works loan. The Bank weekly return issued this afternoon shows as the principal change a large reduction in the private deposits, due to the trade and provincial banking requirements always experienced at this season, and hence an addition of half a million to the note circulation, and a decrease of £157,000 in the bullion. The exact falling-off in the reserve is £860,098, and the proportion it bears to the liabilities is now 46¾ per cent, against 47½ per cent last week. The recorded movements in the week having added £20,000 to the gold, it would seem that £177,000 must have been the total taken out for provincial purposes, much of it, doubtless, for Scotland."

"In consequence, it is understood, of large losses in speculative operations for a rise in shellac, Mr Charles Meyer, merchant, of St Dunster House, Mark-lane, committed suicide this morning. The books of the firm, which was established in 1873, are now being investigated, and the result will soon be made known to the creditors.

"According to the Manchester Examiner, Messrs J Braga and Co., of Liverpool, trading as Braga, Son, and Co., at Pernambuco, have stopped payment, but their liabilities amount to only £10,000. The losses have been chiefly in sugar."

Messrs John Thompson & Son, shipbrokers of Rosario, in their excellent report for the month, give the following:—

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.
National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.
Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.
Gentlemen—I have at your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.
The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.
I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,
JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.
Extracts from Testimonials
From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall. Wales—
"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitations and Spasms.

Extracts from Medical Opinions.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy or any servica in Cholera was Chlorodyne. See Lancet, Dec. 31st, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq. late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay. 'Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed.

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports (December 1855) that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. Collin Browne's Chlorodyne was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera. 'So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, August 1st, 1860, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne, that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION. None genuine without the words 'Dr. J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
